

HEALTHCARE PRACTICE FINANCING

Jason McKenzie

Vice President: Regional Business Development Officer

Jason McKenzie is a Vice President and Regional Business Development Officer with Bank of America Practice Solutions. He specializes in dental practice mergers and acquisitions, advising both first-time buyers and experienced operators on structuring and financing complex transactions. Jason partners closely with clients through every stage of the acquisition process, from evaluation and deal structure to integration and long-term growth, while also supporting real estate and broader expansion initiatives.

Jason joined Bank of America in 2012 as a Vendor Account Manager based in Columbus, Ohio, where he worked closely with industry vendors and gained deep insight into the operational and financial needs of dental practices. In 2015, he was promoted to Regional Business Development Officer for New Jersey, where he built a strong market presence and developed lasting relationships with clients and referral partners.

Over his 14+ years with Practice Solutions, Jason has been involved in more than 500 dental construction and office build-out projects, giving him practical experience guiding clients through the planning, financing, and execution phases of practice development. His expertise spans acquisitions, startups, relocations, and expansions, and he is known for a practical, solutions-focused approach.

Jason is a graduate of The Ohio State University and resides in Glen Ridge, New Jersey, with his wife and two children.
